Carving a career out of education, LYNN ATKINSON began teaching at UTA in 1994 in the English Dept. In 2006 she joined Continuing Ed, broadening her scope to include exam prep courses: SAT, ACT, GED, GRE, GMAT and TEAS. She says her greatest accomplishment is to hear from a student and learn they passed the test using the unique test-taking tips she’s honed over the years.

In 2010, she developed the curriculum for the Technical Writing Certificate Program, which has earned a grade of “100” based on evidence that every “graduate” has earned some form of spiral rise in their career—from a pay raise...to a new position...to a bonus...to a combination.

Lynn affirms, “While as an educator I focus on the skills my students need to move forward, all I really do is build their gray matter!”

ANDREW DELANEY of Arlington, TX, has been an unorthodox voice in the songwriter scene for a decade now. In that time, he has self-released nine full-length albums, won numerous accolades for his writing and had his songs recorded and performed by artists all over the United States. He is a consummate storyteller, often hilarious and heavy in the same breath. Delaney’s ability to entertain, even while speaking on the darkest of subjects, led Rich Warren of WFMT Radio, Chicago to call him “The Alfred Hitchcock of singer and songwriters.”
